

During the six months ended March 31, 2005, BNN Split Corp. generated income available for distribution of $6.2 million, compared with $4.7 million during the same period last year. Investment income for this period increased from $5.0 million to $6.4 million due principally to dividends received on 3 million additional Brascan Class A Limited Voting shares acquired in 2004. Operating expenses decreased to $0.1 million in 2005 compared to $0.3 million in 2004 due to costs associated with the additional Preferred share issue in 2004. For the quarter ended March 31, 2005, the company paid dividends of $2.9 million and $0.1 million to its Preferred and Capital shareholders respectively, compared with $2.0 million and $0.6 million for the same period in 2004.

The Board of Directors declared dividends of $0.390625, $0.309375 and $0.01477 per Preferred share Class A, Class AA Series I and Capital share of the company, respectively, payable on June 7, 2005 to holders of record on May 22, 2005.

The net asset value per unit, consisting of one Preferred share and one Capital share, was $84.53 at March 31, 2005, based on a Brascan share price of $45.70 at that date.

BNN Split Corp. owns a portfolio consisting of 17,418,000 Class A Limited Voting shares of Brascan Corporation ("Brascan shares") in order to generate quarterly fixed cumulative preferential dividends for the holders of the company's Preferred shares and to enable the holders of the company's Capital shares to participate in any capital appreciation of Brascan shares.

Brascan Corporation is an asset management company with a focus on property, power and other infrastructure assets. The company has direct investments of US$20 billion and a further US$20 billion of assets under management. This includes 70 premier office properties and over 120 power generating plants. The company is listed on the New York and Toronto stock exchanges under the symbols BNN and BNN.LV.a, respectively.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

Operating Results

BNN Split Corp. (the "company") generated income available for distribution for the six months ended March 31, 2005, of $6.2 million compared with $4.7 million during the same period last year. Investment income increased to $6.4 million for the first six months of fiscal 2005 from $5.0 million in 2004 due principally to dividends received on 3 million additional Brascan Class A Limited Voting shares ("Brascan shares") acquired in 2004. Operating expenses in the quarter were $0.1 million compared to $0.3 million in the second quarter of 2004. Additional information, including the company's annual information form, is available on SEDAR's website at www.sedar.com.

For the quarter ended March 31, 2005, the company paid dividends of $2.9 million and $0.1 million to its Preferred and Capital shareholders, compared with $2.0 million and $0.6 million for the same period in 2004. The increase in dividends paid is attributable to the Preferred Class AA shares issued in March 2004.

The following table summarizes selected consolidated financial information of the company for the six months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 and for the 3 previous years ended September 30:

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The company is a single-purpose investment company and does not require a large amount of capital to fund operating expenses. However, the company maintains a small amount of cash and an operating line of credit to fund such expenses from time to time.

At the end of the second quarter the company had $11.1 million of cash and equivalents.

Preferred shareholders have the right to surrender their shares for retraction at any time. As Preferred shares are tendered for retraction, the company will ordinarily try to find a purchaser under the remarketing agreement. If no purchasers can be found, the transaction will be funded from the proceeds of disposition of the investment portfolio or an additional offering of Preferred shares.

The net asset value per unit, consisting of one Preferred share and one Capital share, was $84.53 based on a Brascan share price of $45.70 as at March 31, 2005.

Corporate Outlook

The outlook for the company is positive. During the second quarter of 2005, the market price of Brascan shares on the TSX increased by 6% from $43.15 on December 31, 2004 to $45.70 on March 31, 2005. In addition, Brascan increased its quarterly dividend in 2005 to US$0.15 per share. Both of these events are positive for the company, providing further support and growth for our shareholders.
